Chapter 7

21 MICHAEL G. KASOLAS, Chapter 7 Trustee
22 for Fox Ortega Enterprises, Inc. dba Premier 23 Cru

24 Plaintiff

Adversary No. _____

25 vs.

26 BELMONT WINE EXCHANGE, LLC

ORIGINAL COMPLAINT

27 Plaintiff Michael G. Kasolas, the Chapter 7 Trustee (the “Trustee”) for Fox Ortega
28 Enterprises, Inc. dba Premier Cru (“Premier Cru” or the “Debtor”), brings this adversary proceeding against Belmont Wine Exchange, LLC (“Defendant”) and alleges as follows:

INTRODUCTION

1. This suit seeks the avoidance and recovery of transfers from Premier Cru to the Defendant as well as the avoidance of certain obligations Premier Cru incurred in the Defendant’s favor. These transfers and obligations were part of a fraudulent scheme involving the sale of wine

1 that caused the loss of tens of millions of dollars. At the time of the Premier Cru's bankruptcy,
2 approximately 4,500 customers had not received pre-arrival wine for which that had already paid,
3 with losses reaching $45 million.

4 2. Transfers to the Defendant and the obligations incurred by Premier Cru were made
5 as part of the fraud and with the actual intent to hinder, delay, or defraud Premier Cru's creditors.
6 Premier Cru incurred obligations in favor of the Defendant for the purpose of acquiring funds
7 necessary for the continuation of the fraud. Later, Premier Cru made transfers to the Defendant
8 with the purpose of concealing the ongoing fraud, to lull customers into a false sense that Premier 9 Cru was a legitimate business, to cause the customers to continue to purchase wine from Premier 10 Cru, and to prevent them from complaining to law enforcement authorities.

11 3. The Trustee requests that this Court grant relief that will return the value of the 12 transfers to the Defendant that were made as a part of the scheme. Specifically, the Trustee seeks 13 the avoidance and recovery of the transfers made and obligations incurred that are identified below
14 under 11 U.S.C. §§ 544, 548, 550 and California Civil Code § 3439.04.

15 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

16 4. This is an adversary proceeding, pursuant to Federal Rule of Bankruptcy
17 Procedure, which relates to the Chapter 7 proceeding captioned In re Fox Ortega Enterprises, Inc., 18 dba Premier Cru, Case No. 16-40050-WJL (Bankr. N.D. Cal., Oakland Div.).

19 5. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over this action pursuant to section 28
20 U.S.C. § 1334(b) and 28 U.S.C. § 157(a), in that this adversary proceeding arises in, arises under, 21 and/or relates to Premier Cru's chapter 7 case.

22 6. This adversary proceeding is a core proceeding under section 157(b)(2) of Title 28
23 of the United States Code, such that this Court has jurisdiction to hear and determine this 24 proceeding and to enter an appropriate order and judgment. To the extent necessary, the Trustee 25 consents to entry of a final order or judgment by this Court.

26 7. The Defendant's forum-related activities give rise to the action before the Court.
27 The Defendant purposefully directed its activities and consummated the transactions described 28 below within California, thereby invoking the benefits and protection of California law. As

1 reflected in the applicable terms and conditions for the transactions described below, “[a]ny wine
2 sold to you by Premier Cru is sold in California, and title passes to you, the buyer, in California.”
3 Furthermore, the Trustee’s claims arise out of or relate to the Defendant’s forum-related activities.

4 8. This Court is the proper venue for this adversary proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C.
5 § 1409(a) because the Debtor’s chapter 7 case is pending in this judicial district.

6 PARTIES

7 9. The Trustee is the duly appointed chapter 7 trustee for the bankruptcy estate of 9 Date”), at which time the Trustee was appointed by the Court. The Trustee is duly authorized and 10 empowered to pursue any and all claims of the Debtor’s estate.

11 10. Defendant Belmont Wine Exchange, LLC is a California limited liability company
12 with its principal place of business at 25811 Clawiter Road, Hayward, California 94545.
13 Defendant may be served with process through its registered agent, Andrew Harris Zimmerman at

15 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

16 I. Premier Cru’s Operations

17 11. Premier Cru was founded in 1980 by John Fox (“Fox”) and Hector Ortega as a 18 seller of top-quality wines in the Bay Area. During all relevant times, Fox owned equity in 19 Premier Cru and served as its President. Fox made all significant business decisions for Premier 20 Cru. Fox was the sole manager of the company’s finances, including payment of Premier Cru’s 21 bills and expenses, as well as obtaining business loans and financing from banks or individuals to 22 fund Premier Cru’s operations.

23 12. Premier Cru originally operated out of a small storefront in Oakland with a focus
24 on hard to find and limited production offerings. As Premier Cru’s popularity grew, the company
25 determined that it would begin purchasing its supply of wine from sources overseas and obtained 26 its own import license. Premier Cru touted that it could eliminate the middle man while 27
28

1 simultaneously increasing the allocation of hard to locate wines by supposedly sourcing its 2 inventory directly.

3 13. The Debtor generally sold wine in two ways. First, the company sold wine that 4 was, or supposedly was, physically held in Premier Cru's inventory. Second, Premier Cru sold
5 wine on a "pre-arrival" basis, whereby customers paid for wine that was not in Premier Cru's
6 physical possession but which Premier Cru represented it had already purchased.

7 14. In the wine industry, there are generally two ways to purchase wine before it is 8 released to the open market. "Wine futures" involve the purchase of wine while it is still in the 9 barrel and before the wine is bottled. Because the purchaser must wait for the wine to age in the 10 barrel, buyers can expect to wait years before receiving the wine they purchased. Premier Cru did 11 not sell wine futures. In contrast, "pre-arrival" wines are sold to collectors months before a wine
12 is released to the open market, but after the wine has actually been bottled. Unlike "wine futures," 13 there is generally less risk in pre-arrival purchasing because importers know exactly how many 14 bottles they will receive from the supplier. Pre-arrival sales allow consumers to purchase difficult 15 to locate wines at prices that are generally lower than what is found in the market. Premier Cru 16 purportedly sold pre-arrival wines.

17 15. Premier Cru sold pre-arrival wine through a website operated and maintained by 18 Premier Cru or through salespeople who worked in the Premier Cru offices and reported to Fox.
19 The "Terms and Conditions" associated with the sale of pre-arrival wine provided as follows:

20 The term "Pre-Arrival" is applied to wines we have purchased (typically abroad)
21 that have not arrived yet. Depending on the particular wine, the arrival time is 22 typically 6+ months to over two years (in the case of Bordeaux Futures, for example).

23 Many new releases of highly desirable, limited-production wines (ie – Burgundy, 24 Rhone, Italian, etc.) are offered on a "Pre-Arrival" basis by our suppliers. These 25 offerings typically take 6 to 18 months to arrive and are often the only way to source the wines before they sell out (and at optimal prices). We send an email notification when your wine arrives.

26 According to Fox, the majority of Premier Cru's revenue was derived from pre-arrival sales.
27
28

1        II.     The Fraud

2            16.     On or about August 11, 2016, Fox entered into a guilty plea in his
3 criminal case [United States v. John Fox, Case No. CR 16-281 JD, N.D. Cal] and executed a Plea
4 Agreement in which he admitted that he operated the Debtor as a fraudulent scheme. In his plea
5 agreement, Fox admitted that he “devised a scheme to defraud, and a scheme for obtaining 6 property by means of false and fraudulent pretenses, representations and omissions, through 7 Premier Cru’s sale of pre-arrival wine.” Fox further admitted that his fraudulent conduct began as 8 early as 1993 or 1994. Through Fox’s actions, Premier Cru engaged in a massive fraud whereby 9 funds derived from later fraudulent wine sales were used to pay obligations that arose from earlier 10 fraudulent transactions.

11           17.     According to Premier Cru, the pre-arrival wines were wines that the company had 12 supposedly already contracted to purchase from its suppliers. Premier Cru further represented that 13 it would deliver the pre-arrival wines to customers within a time period of approximately six 14 months to two years after customers had paid for the wine. These representations were false at 15 the time they were made for at least two reasons. First, Fox admitted to falsifying purchase orders
16 for wine that Premier Cru had not contracted to purchase and then entering that wine into Premier 17 Cru’s inventory records for sale to its customers. He stated that Premier Cru “priced these wines 18 at prices below the market price, knowing that [he] had not and would not need to actually pay for 19 this wine from any vendors.” Second, Fox stated that Premier Cru contracted with “foreign 20 suppliers . . . to purchase wine, generally with the promise to pay those foreign suppliers within 30
21 days.” Fox did so even where he “knew that Premier Cru would not be able to make payment
22 within 30 days, or ever” because he (a) “embezzled money from Premier Cru’s business accounts
23 that [he] should have used to pay Premier Cru’s suppliers” or (b) “diverted money coming in from 24 current customers to obtain wine for prior customers who had never received their wine.” In 25 either event, the end result was the same—Premier Cru did not have the wine required to fulfill the 26 obligations for its pre-arrival customers. Fox further admitted that “customers paid Premier Cru 27 for wine that [he] knew Premier Cru could not deliver to them and which they never received” and 28 that his false statements were made “with the intent to defraud Premier Cru’s customers.” At the 1 time of the bankruptcy, approximately 4,500 customers had not received pre-arrival wine for 2 which that had already paid.

3 18. The fraud was unsustainable on its face because the funds Premier Cru received 4 from its customers were less than the cost of purchasing wine at a later date to fulfill the 5 outstanding orders. Due to the rarity of the wines at issue, purchasing wines on the open market 6 after their release is far more costly than sourcing the wines from appropriate overseas suppliers on 7 a pre-arrival basis. Furthermore, Premier Cru sometimes offered pre-arrivals at a price lower than 8 the current market for pre-arrivals. This act of undercutting the market assisted in raising funds 9 while simultaneously increasing the gap between Premier Cru's assets and its obligations. To 10 make matters worse, Premier Cru's Fox removed millions of dollars from the company, further 11 reducing the funds available to satisfy Premier Cru's obligations. Because Premier Cru was not 12 generating sufficient revenue from the pre-arrival sales to ultimately purchase wine for its 13 customers, the company was forced to enter into an increasing number of fraudulent, pre-arrival 14 sales to fill the financial gap and generate the funds required to purchase wine for its existing 15 customers. As Premier Cru's liquidity and its ability to enter into a sufficient number of new pre-16 arrival transactions declined, Premier Cru was forced to declare bankruptcy in 2016.

17 19. Prior to 2015, Premier Cru was able to conceal its fraud from its creditors.
18 According to Fox, his efforts to conceal the fraud included (a) offering falsified excuses and 19 promises for wine that Premier Cru would not be delivered; (b) delivering wine that was 20 purchased by other customers; and (c) purchasing wine at retail prices for use in fulfilling 21 outstanding orders. Fox admitted that he "took these and other actions to "conceal [Premier 22 Cru's] ongoing fraud, to lull customers into a false sense that Premier Cru was a legitimate 23 business, to cause [its] customers to continue to purchase wine from Premier Cru, and to prevent 24 them from complaining to law enforcement authorities." Furthermore, Premier Cru concealed its 25 fraud by making cash disbursements to customers whose orders were not fulfilled, often in 26 amounts greater than what customers had originally paid for their alleged pre-arrival orders.

27 20. The sales and subsequent transfers to the Defendant were made as a part of the 28 fraud and with the actual intent to hinder, delay, or defraud Premier Cru's creditors. Premier Cru

1 made the transfers and incurred the obligations with the purpose of concealing the ongoing fraud,
2 lulling customers into a false sense that Premier Cru was a legitimate business, causing customers
3 to continue to purchase wine from Premier Cru, and preventing customers from complaining to 4 law enforcement authorities by paying them cash settlements.

5 III. Badges of Fraud Related to the Transactions with the Defendant

6 21. Multiple badges of fraud are present with respect to the transactions with and 7 transfers to the Defendant, including the following:

- 8 • Premier Cru was insolvent during the period of the transfers;
- 9 • Premier Cru had incurred, and was continuing to incur, substantial debt while it 10 was making its payments to the Defendant;
- 11 • The true nature of the transactions with the Defendant was concealed. Premier Cru 12 made false statements indicating that it was contractually entitled to receive the pre-13 arrival wine from its suppliers and falsified accounting documentation to cover up
14 its fraudulent actions. Fox further admitted to making efforts to conceal the fraud 15 through false statements to customers regarding the status of their orders. As 16 admitted by Fox, his actions were undertaken with the intent to defraud customers;
- 17 • The transfers were made while Premier Cru was under threat of potential lawsuits.
18 Had Premier Cru's creditors discovered the fraud, Premier Cru and its principals
19 would have been subject to numerous lawsuits. In fact, Premier Cru's customers 20 repeatedly and regularly threatened the company with lawsuits where pre-arrival 21 wine was not delivered, and in some instances, actually filed suit;
- 22 • Premier Cru removed and concealed assets. Fox admitted that, in the face of 23 customer complaints, he caused Premier Cru to deliver wine to the complaining 24 customers that was paid for by other customers. Furthermore, Fox caused Premier 25 Cru to transfer large sums for his personal benefit as further described in his plea 26 agreement;
- 27 • Premier Cru incurred the obligations and made the transfers described herein for 28 less than reasonably equivalent value;
- As described in more detail above, the overall existence and cumulative effect of the pattern, series of transactions, and Premier Cru's course of conduct indicate the transactions with the Defendant were designed to defraud creditors. Premier Cru incurred debt and faced financial difficulties, and as a result, entered into the transactions with the Defendant and other customers in order to further the fraud;
- The general chronology of events and the transactions under inquiry indicate the intent to defraud. Premier Cru entered into pre-arrival wine sales without having the underlying right to receive the wine from its suppliers. The purpose of the 1 transactions was to provide liquidity to fuel the fraud and for Fox's improper

2 diversions and embezzlement. Moreover, Premier Cru's entry into fraudulent pre-3 arrival wine sales naturally increased based upon its need to enter into more and 4 more fraudulent transactions to pay for prior obligations;

- 5 • Premier Cru's conduct was both exceptional and peculiar. Such conduct included 6 falsifying accounting documentation, making false statements to customers, and 7 generally utilizing payments from later customers to fulfill obligations owed to 8 prior customers;
- 9 • Premier Cru made false statements, concealed facts, and operated under false 10 pretenses. Among other things, Premier made misrepresentations concerning the 11 following: (a) its financial condition; (b) its contractual relationships with suppliers 12 and its right to receive the wines in question; (c) its inventory balances; and (d) the 13 purported reason for delays in wine delivery;
- 14 • The transactions with the customers for the fraudulent wine transactions, including 15 the Defendant, were questionable and not in ordinary course for a legitimate 16 business. Companies such as Premier Cru do not intentionally misrepresent their 17 inventory and contractual purchases from their vendors or alter documents to 18 support sales;
- 19 • Premier Cru entered into the transactions involved in the fraud under secrecy and 20 haste, and the transactions were unusual. Premier Cru disguised its pre-arrival 21 sales using falsified documentation and misrepresentations to its customers.
22 Furthermore, Premier Cru acted with haste in fulfilling fraudulent orders for those 23 customers that complained repeatedly or forcefully;
- 24 • Premier Cru was aware of its creditors' claims against the company and that 25 Premier Cru was incapable of paying those claims.

26 CLAIMS FOR RELIEF

27 Count I – Actual Intent Fraudulent Transfer 28 Under 11 U.S.C. § 548(a)(1)(A) (Wine and Cash Transfers)

22. The Trustee re-alleges and fully incorporates the allegations pleaded in the preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

23. The Debtor presently has one or more creditors whose claim arose either before or after the transfers to the Defendant.

24. Premier Cru transferred at least 4,411 bottles of wine to the Defendant in the two years prior to the Petition Date (the "548 Transfers"). The 548 Transfers are more fully described in Exhibit A, which is attached hereto.

1           25.     The 548 Transfers were made within two years of the Petition Date.

2           26.     The aggregate amount of the 548 Transfers may be in excess of the above-stated
3 amount, and the Trustee may amend his Complaint as and when additional transfers made as a part
4 of the scheme are ascertained.

5           27.     The 548 Transfers were made as a part of the fraud at Premier Cru. Premier Cru
6 entered into the underlying wine sales in furtherance of its fraudulent scheme. Each of the 7 transactions generated cash through the alleged “sale” of the wine to the Defendant. These sham
8 transactions provided Premier Cru with the funds it required to satisfy already existing obligations
9 that were part of the fraudulent scheme. Furthermore, Premier Cru entered into additional 10 transactions with other customers at a later time that ultimately provided the company with the 11 funds necessary to purchase wine for the 548 Transfers. This pattern of conduct of using new 12 money to fund the fulfillment of earlier obligations constitutes a Ponzi scheme or similar fraud 13 whereby funds received from later fraudulent transactions were used to fund prior obligations.

14           28.     Moreover, Fox’s plea agreement evidences Premier Cru’s intent to defraud its 15 creditors through the fraudulent scheme. Therefore, the 548 Transfers were made with the actual 16 intent to hinder, delay, or defraud entities to which Premier Cru was or became indebted to on or 17 after the date of the transfer.

18           29.     As stated above, there are a multitude of badges of fraud present with respect to the 19 transactions with the Defendant. The existence and sheer number of the badges of fraud present in 20 this matter indicate that Premier Cru intended to hinder, delay, or defraud its creditors in entering 21 into and making the 548 Transfers.

22           30.     Defendant was the initial transferee of the Transfers as the Defendant received the 23 wine and funds transferred directly from Premier Cru.

24           31.     Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 548(a)(1)(A) and 550, the Trustee is entitled to judgment
25 avoiding and recovering the value of the 548 Transfers from the Defendant.

26
27
28

Count II – Actual Intent Voidable Transfer
Under California Civil Code § 3439.04(a)(1) et seq.; 11 U.S.C. §§ 544 and 550
(Wine and Cash Transfers)

32. The Trustee re-alleges and fully incorporates the allegations pleaded in the preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

33. The Debtor presently has one or more creditors whose claim arose either before or after the transfers to the Defendant.

34. Premier Cru transferred the 548 Transfers to the Defendant as detailed above.

35. Premier Cru also transferred at least 84 additional bottles of wine to the Defendant during the 7 years prior to the Petition Date. (the “Additional Wine Transfers”). The Additional Wine Transfers are more fully described in Exhibit B, which is attached hereto.

36. The 548 Transfers and the Additional Wine Transfers (collectively, the “Total Transfers”) were made within seven years of the Petition Date.

37. The aggregate amount of the Total Transfers may be in excess of the above-stated amount, and the Trustee may amend his Complaint as and when additional transfers made as a part of the scheme are ascertained.

38. The Total Transfers were made as a part of the fraud at Premier Cru. Premier Cru entered into the underlying wine sales in furtherance of its fraudulent scheme. Each of the transactions generated cash through the alleged “sale” of the wine to the Defendant. These sham transactions provided Premier Cru with the funds it required to satisfy already existing obligations that were part of the fraudulent scheme. Furthermore, Premier Cru entered into additional transactions with other customers at a later time that ultimately provided the company with the funds necessary to purchase wine for the Total Transfers. This pattern of conduct of using new money to fund the fulfillment of earlier obligations constitutes a Ponzi scheme or similar fraud whereby funds received from later fraudulent transactions were used to fund prior obligations.

39. Moreover, Fox’s plea agreement evidences Premier Cru’s intent to defraud its creditors through the fraudulent scheme. Therefore, the Total Transfers were made with the actual intent to hinder, delay, or defraud entities to which Premier Cru was or became indebted to on or after the date of the transfer.

1           40.     As stated above, there are a multitude of badges of fraud present with respect to the
2 transactions with the Defendant. The existence and sheer number of the badges of fraud present in
3 this matter indicate that Premier Cru intended to hinder, delay, or defraud its creditors in entering 4 into and making the Total Transfers.

5           41.     Defendant was the initial transferee of the Total Transfers as the Defendant
6 received the wine and funds transferred directly from Premier Cru.

7           42.     Pursuant to California Civil Code § 3439.04(a)(1) et seq. and 11 U.S.C. §§ 544 &
8 550, the Trustee is entitled to judgment avoiding and recovering the value of the Total Transfers
9 from the Defendant.

10                               Count III – Actual Intent Fraudulent Transfer
11                               Under 11 U.S.C. § 548(a)(1)(A) 12                               (Obligations to the Defendant)

13           43.     The Trustee re-alleges and fully incorporates the allegations pleaded in the 14 preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

15           44.     The Debtor presently has one or more creditors whose claim arose either before or 16 after the transfers to the Defendant.

17           45.     Premier Cru entered incurred obligations to transfer at least 4,411 bottles of wine to 18 the Defendant in the two years prior to the Petition Date (the “548 Obligations”). The 548
19 Obligations are more fully described in Ex. C, which is attached hereto.

20           46.     The aggregate amount of the 548 Obligations may be in excess of the above-stated
21 amount, and the Trustee may amend his Complaint as and when additional transfers made as a part
22 of the scheme are ascertained.

23           47.     The 548 Obligations were incurred within two years of the Petition Date.

24           48.     The 548 Obligations were made as a part of the fraud at Premier Cru. Premier Cru
25 entered into the underlying wine sales in furtherance of its fraudulent scheme. Each of the 26 transactions generated cash through the alleged “sale” of the wine to the Defendant. These sham
27 transactions provided Premier Cru with the funds it required to satisfy already existing obligations
28 that were part of the fraudulent scheme. Furthermore, Premier Cru entered into additional

1 transactions with other customers at a later time that ultimately provided the company with the 2 funds necessary to satisfy the 548 Obligations. This pattern of conduct of using new money to
3 fund the fulfillment of earlier obligations constitutes a Ponzi scheme or similar fraud whereby
4 funds received from later fraudulent transactions were used to fund prior obligations.

5 49. Moreover, Fox's plea agreement evidences Premier Cru's intent to defraud its 6 creditors through the fraudulent scheme. Therefore, the 548 Obligations were incurred with the 7 actual intent to hinder, delay, or defraud entities to which Premier Cru was or became indebted to 8 on or after the date of the transfer.

9 50. As stated above, there are a multitude of badges of fraud present with respect to the 10 transactions with the Defendant. The existence and sheer number of the badges of fraud present in
11 this matter indicate that Premier Cru intended to hinder, delay, or defraud its creditors in entering 12 into the sales and incurring the 548 Obligations.

13 51. Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 548(a)(1)(A), the Trustee is entitled to judgment avoiding 14 the 548 Obligations.

15 Count IV – Actual Intent Voidable Transfer
16 Under California Civil Code § 3439.04(a)(1) et seq.; 11 U.S.C. §§ 544 and 550
17 (Obligations to Defendant)

18 52. The Trustee re-alleges and fully incorporates the allegations pleaded in the 19 preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

20 53. The Debtor presently has one or more creditors whose claim arose either before or 21 after the transfers to the Defendant.

22 54. Premier Cru incurred the 548 Obligations as detailed above.

23 55. Premier Cru also incurred obligations to the Defendant relating to 84 bottles of 24 wine during the seven years prior to the Petition Date (the "Additional Obligations"). The 25 Additional Obligations are more fully described in Exhibit D, which is attached hereto.

26 56. The 548 Obligations and the Additional Obligations (collectively, the "Total 27 Obligations") were incurred within seven years of the Petition Date.
28

1           57.     The aggregate amount of the Total Obligations may be in excess of the above-
2 stated amount, and the Trustee may amend his Complaint as and when additional transfers made 3 as a part of the scheme are ascertained.

4           58.     The Total Obligations were incurred as a part of the fraud at Premier Cru. Premier 5 Cru entered into the underlying wine sales in furtherance of its fraudulent scheme. Each of the 6 transactions generated cash through the alleged “sale” of the wine to the Defendant. These sham
7 transactions provided Premier Cru with the funds it required to satisfy already existing obligations
8 that were part of the fraudulent scheme. Furthermore, Premier Cru entered into additional 9 transactions with other customers at a later time that ultimately provided the company with the 10 funds necessary to satisfy the Total Obligations. This pattern of conduct of using new money to 11 fund the fulfillment of earlier obligations constitutes a Ponzi scheme or similar fraud whereby
12 funds received from later fraudulent transactions were used to fund prior obligations.

13           59.     Moreover, Fox’s plea agreement evidences Premier Cru’s intent to defraud its 14 creditors through the fraudulent scheme. Therefore, the Total Obligations were incurred with the 15 actual intent to hinder, delay, or defraud entities to which Premier Cru was or became indebted to 16 on or after the date of the transfer.

17           60.     As stated above, there are a multitude of badges of fraud present with respect to the 18 transactions with the Defendant. The existence and sheer number of the badges of fraud present in
